BASE ORDER 7010.7

From: Commanding General
To: Distribution List

Subj: RELIGIOUS OFFERING FUND (ROF)

Ref: (a) SECNAVINST 1730.7
(b) SECNAVINST 7010.6
(c) MCO 7010.17A

1. Purpose. The ROF is established per reference (a), to serve the religious needs of the contributors by allowing for the collection and disbursement of offerings as an act of worship within the context of the Command Religious Program. Appropriate recipients of support from the ROF are organizations or individuals generally recognized as benevolent or service-oriented or religious bodies recommended by the contributors to the ROF.
2. Cancellation. BO 1730.5.
3. Policy. The ROF is a nonappropriated fund established by and administered under the authority of the Commanding General. These funds will be used only for projects of religious benevolence beyond the limits of the Command Religious Program, not as an alternative to support the Command Religious Program. The provisions of reference (a) and this paragraph do not preclude the receipt and use of designated contributions to the ROF for items to enhance worship of a more general nature or heighten the importance of a special religious service or activity.
4. Requirements. The ROF shall operate per references (b) and (c).
5. Applicability. This Order is not applicable to the Blount Island Command.

C. H. INGRAHAM, Jr.
